

SUKIYAKI

SUKIYAKI is a Nabemono(one pot)style Japanese dish. We serve it traditional style. The original blend sauce is premixed. The sauce is then served inside an iron pot in which the individual cooks their meat and vegetables. They are dipped in a fresh egg after being cooked.

How to enjoy the NABE

It is very simple. After your Motsunabe have boiled up for ten minutes, it is ready to feast. To complete Motsunabe, we recommend adding noodle or rice in the remaining soup to finish off your appetite. This will hit your spot, guaranteed.

Most Japanese people believe that eating out of the same hotpot will make better relationship as "NAKAMA(buddies)". So enjoy our delicious Motsunabe among your friends, colleagues, and loved ones over the steam come out of the hotpot.

What's MOTSU-NABE

Motsu-nabe(beef giblets hotpot)is a type of NABE just like SUKIYAKI or SHABU-SHABU in Japanese cuisine. When the giblets have cooked in broth unnecessary fat is reduced, vegetables can be consumed in large amount in single meal.

Well, Yam and Healthyyyyyy! It is very healthy for you.

It is low in calories, yet high nutrition and lots of fiber!

A hot pot(nabe)includes fresh beef giblets and fresh vegetables cooked in our delicious original broth at your table. Yammyyy.
